

COMPTROLLER GENERAL OF THE UNITED STATES
Joseph Campbell

Responsible for providing legislative control over the financial transactions of the Government and an independent review of executive expenditures.

ASSISTANT COMPTROLLER
GENERAL OF THE UNITED STATES
Frank H. Weitzel

EUROPEAN BRANCH
Smith Blair

With headquarters in Paris performs audit, investigative, legal and other functions of General Accounting Office in the European area, the Near East, and North Africa.

ACCOUNTING AND
AUDITING POLICY
Ellsworth H. Morse, Jr.

describes accounting principles, standards and requirements and develops auditing policy, standards and practices for guidance of the Federal Government agencies.

STAFF
MANAGEMENT
Lev Herbert

In collaboration with U.S. Board of Civil Service Examiners formulates and executes a program for recruitment of highly qualified accountants and auditors and develops and carries out a training and career development program.

GENERAL COUNSEL
Robert E. Kallier

Provides legal advice to Comptroller General in matters of law coming before the office most of which involve the decision making function of the Comptroller General; provides reports and recommendations to the attorney general relative to suits involving U.S. government; appears before Congress on matters peculiarly within their experience and knowledge; confers with agencies concerning legislation; and confers with claimants regarding claims settlements and decisions affecting their interests.

LEGISLATIVE LIAISON
John Martiny

Responsible for all legislative liaison between General Accounting Office and Congress.

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES
John F. Feeney

Responsible for administrative services pertaining to General Accounting Office including preparation and execution of budget, maintenance of administrative accounts, and furnishing office services.

DEFENSE ACCOUNTING AND AUDITING
(INVESTIGATIONS)
Lawrence J. Povers

Responsible for carrying out the cooperative accounting systems development, auditing and investigative functions of the Comptroller General in the Department of Defense.

CIVIL ACCOUNTING AND AUDITING
(INVESTIGATIONS)
Adolph T. Samuelson

Responsible for carrying out the cooperative accounting systems development, auditing and investigative functions of the Comptroller General in agencies other than those assigned to the Defense accounting and Auditing Divisions.

FIELD OPERATIONS
John E. Thornton

Through Regional offices in principal cities of U.S. performs comprehensive and site audits, accounting system work and investigative work in the continental limits of the U.S. (except Washington, D. C.) as assigned by the Civil and Defense Accounting and Auditing Divisions.

PERSONNEL
T. A. Flynn

Responsible for planning, developing and administering the personnel management program of the General Accounting Office.

CLAIMS
Lawrence V. Denney

Responsible for settlement of all claims other than transportation.

TRANSPORTATION
John P. Abbadesse

Performs both audit and claims settlement function with respect to transportation.

FAR EAST BRANCH
Robert F. Brandt

With headquarters in Tokyo performs audit investigative, legal and other functions of General Accounting Office in all Department of Defense activities in the Far East area.